Subject: NCBW – Patricia Walker Shaw Scholarship Application

The National Coalition of 100 Black Women (NCBW), Inc., Memphis Chapter, announces its annual Patricia Walker Shaw Scholarship Program. The program is open to women and girls who are or will be pursuing a higher level of education. Recipients of this scholarship may be a graduate of public secondary education, enrolled in a specialized technical/professional program of study, returning to college after starting a career or attending college. There is no age limitation for receipt of this scholarship.

This is a one-time-only scholarship for those pursuing their first degree. Our scholarship award will be distributed to the selected students upon proof of enrollment and/or current grade status at an accredited college, trade/professional, or technical school. The first scholarship amount will be provided in September after enrollment verification has been received. The remaining amount of the scholarship will be provided to the student after receipt of proof of the student's continuing enrollment from the institution they are attending.

Students should review the attached information and ensure that all requirements are met. Only complete applications will receive the full credit. Please carefully review each aspect of the application and complete it accordingly. All application materials must be returned to NCBW and postmarked no later than April 5, 2024, to be considered. Final selections will be made by May 3, 2024.

Thank you for your interest in our scholarship program. We are committed to reaching and assisting our "unique" sisters through this scholarship effort.

Sincerely,

Deborah Rivers
